

The Master's Weekend

Cambridge 12 -14 July 2019

Ladies & Gentlemen The Master's UK weekend will take place in Cambridge over the weekend of 12-14 July. The following is the outline programme for the weekend:

Friday 12th July:

11am Arrival for those booked and staying at Downing College.

13.00 – 15.30: Drinks & canapes reception at Masters' college Wolfson, East court if fine weather or Combination room if raining. Special guest; President of Wolfson college, Prof. Jane Clarke.

18.30 drinks reception, followed by dinner at Downing College 19.15

Saturday 13th July:

09.30- Blue badge guided walking tour of Cambridge colleges and places of interest. Followed by punting on River Cam with Scudamores.

We may, depending on numbers, split into two groups;

Group A- 09.30 walking tour followed by chauffeured punting

Group B- 09.30 chauffeured punting, followed by Blue badge walking tour.

Both groups should be finished by 12.30/13.00

Afternoon free to take lunch at one of the many pubs and restaurants in Cambridge.

For the adventurous you can hire a bicycle and cycle around Cambridge.

Also nearby is the Beautiful village of Grantchester and the RAF museum at Duxford.

Evening: it is a short walk from Downing College to Queens college, the setting for our Black tie banquet

18.30- champagne reception in the old kitchen adjacent to the medieval hall at Queens College.

On the way into Queens, you will walk across the famous wooden Mathematical bridge across the Cam into the historic heart of Queens college.

19.15- call for dinner in the beautiful medieval hall for our black tie banquet. Entertainment will be provided by the singers from Kings college choir, who will enchant us with their close harmony acapella voices.

Sunday 14th July-

After breakfast for those who wish, attend the morning service at Kings College Chaple.

For those who are staying on for Sunday- we could arrange a Sunday lunch in the Double Tree Hilton down by the river Cam an Excellent and relaxing location and just a short stroll away from Downing College.
