Sir Christopher Wren Banquet

Fishmongers' Hall, London Bridge, London EC4R9EL

Thursday 6th of June 2019.

The Sir Christopher Wren Banquet is our premier social function of the year and we will be joined by Sheriff, Alderman Vincent Keaveny

This year we return after many years to the Splendour of Fishmongers' Hall with its magnificent views of the River. There will be a three course meal with musical entertainment from The Royal Marines Association band and Violinist Freya Goldmark. It is a formal occasion and the dress code is evening dress (white tie, although there is a black tie option) with orders, decorations and Livery badges and medals. The Master's receiving line opens at 18.15, and dinner will be called at 18.45. All members and their guests are very welcome.

Fishmongers has a good capacity and we do not expect to have problems with capacity, but as ever, once it is full it is full, and we cannot push the walls any wider apart to squeeze a few more in. The earlier you book the better the chance you have of getting the places you want. It is acceptable to book places without the names of all your guests so long as it is understood that there is a firm commitment to that number of places and names must be supplied not later than 14 days before the event. A "pour memoir" card will acknowledge all bookings. The cost is £110.00 per person to include Champagne Reception, wines and VAT. If you require a VAT receipt tick the box below. There is no way to book other than by using the form below you will be billed in arrears by the Hon Tres.
