GDPR – The Worshipful Company of Constructors (the Company) collects personal data to enable the Company to effectively run the event for your benefit. The data collected and processed will be used to provide agreed, or reasonably expected, information including, but not limited to, your name appearing on the seating plan and name cards and any special dietary needs you may have being communicated to the caterers. Except as required by law and your written permission we will never share your details. We promise to make all reasonable efforts to keep your details secure. This data will be deleted after the event except on the Company's historical records.

The Master and Wardens are pleased to invite you to join other Constructors on a guided tour of the City of London Police Museum at 2 Aldermanbury, London, EC2V 2HH.

The visit will take place on Wednesday, 25 September and will be conducted by Peter Clarke, a retired City of London Police Inspector. It will commence at 11.00.

On completion of the tour of the Museum the party will adjourn to a nearby hostelry for a “pay as you go” lunch.

Following lunch, at about 14.30, Peter Clarke will lead a walking tour round some interesting “police sites” in the City. The walking tour is expected to last no more than one hour.

Members will be invoiced by the assistant Honorary Treasurer after the tour and are asked to settle the invoice as soon as possible after receiving it.

Members are reminded that by requesting places at this event they consent to any photographs that may be taken of the event being published on the Company website, or in any other publication by the Company.
