ZOOMINAR

The Rebuilding of London after the Great Fire of 1666

A VIRTUAL TOUR AND TALK

At 6.30pm - For approx. 1 hour

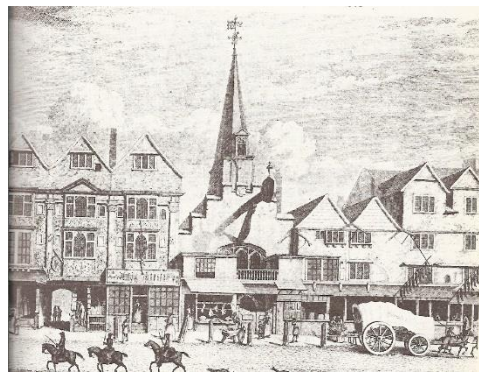

On

Thurs 21st May

To be held via ZOOM on a screen near you

In September 1666 fire engulfed the City of London for four days and nights and destroyed four-fifths of the fabric, including St Paul's Cathedral, the Guildhall, the Royal Exchange, 87 churches, 44 livery halls and over 13,000 houses.

This talk by Dr Stephen Cornish describes how London was largely rebuilt within ten years and considers the individuals involved.
