Gala Fundraising Banquet

Details

This year's Gala Fundraising Banquet will take place in the library of the historic and opulent Reform Club. The Club was formed by supporters of the Great Reform Act of 1832 which started the process of the move to the Government by the people in this country. In less political terms it's Gallery was used as the scene of the sword fight in James Bond's "Die another Day".

The fundraising from this year's dinner will be directed to supporting the activities and progress of the Companies Climate Action Committee, the aim of which is to involve our Members and leverage their influence to help address the Climate Emergency.

All Members are welcome to attend and encouraged to bring guests the cost of the Banquet which will comprise a reception and 3 course Dinner is £175 a head. Capacity is limited to 150 and, once its full, its full.

Please let the Clerk know by E Mail if you wish to attend and are bringing guests, Please do include any special dietary requirements for yourself and your guests.

The closing date is Friday 2nd September 22. All questions and enquiries to the Clerk.
