Tour & Lunch Details

London's most magnificent 18th-century aristocratic palace tour visit of Spencer House and lunch with decadence at the elegant private rooms of Davy's Wine Merchants at St. James.

From its conception Spencer House was recognised as one of the most ambitious and splendid private palaces ever built in London and is today the city's only great eighteenth-century house to survive intact.

All Members and their guests are welcome to attend and enjoy an afternoon into the indulgent of the marvellous interiors and story of a classical design showcase.

Prices:

Lunch and tour £79 pp

Includes a Spencer House special access tour and 3 course meal in a private room at Davy's St. James

Tour only £33pp

Spencer House special access tour

So that the Company can cater correctly all Members proposing to attend should confirm their attendance and whether or not they are bringing a Guest.

Closing date is Monday 1st May 23.
