Custom House Tour

A Behind-the-Scenes Tour of London's Custom House

Join us for an exclusive tour of Custom House, an iconic building on the north bank of the Thames with a rich history dating back to the 14th century.

Custom House Tour

A special opportunity for a private tour of Custom House, specially curated for members of the Constructors and esteemed guests from the industry and City of London. This historic building, once the epicenter for customs duties, has stood proudly since the 14th century, witnessing centuries of change and development.

The tour, spanning a few hours offers a captivating glimpse into the past while showcasing the building's significance in London's history. Following the tour, we invite you to join us for a drink's reception at a nearby location in the Square Mile.

Numbers are limited to 30. Open to members and special guests from the industry.

The cost per head is £5pp and food and beverages will be at your own expense.

To secure your place or for any inquiries, please contact the organiser, Paul Singh.

Due to high demand, we cannot guarantee you a place at this event. Please wait for formal confirmation from the organiser before considering your reservation accepted.
