Red Badge Tour

Join us for the annual September Red Badge Tour hosted by The Worshipful Company of Constructors. This year, embark on an exclusive tour of the West End, where we'll explore the front façades of the Pall Mall Clubs at street level. Our knowledgeable Red Badge guide, Murray Craig will provide fascinating historical insights and stories throughout the journey. The tour will conclude at the prestigious Royal Automobile Club, where you can enjoy lunch.

Meet your tour guide: Murray Craig

Murray Craig, Clerk of the Chamberlain's Court at the City Corporation of London between 1997-2022, has been a certified City of London Guide since 2004. Murray's City tours are legendary with his in-depth knowledge of the Livery, City architecture, customs and traditions of the Square Mile. However, there is no end to his talents as he is also a guide at Twickenham leading tours of the Stadium for the RFU and gives tours as a National Trust volunteer at Shaw's Corner, the Hertfordshire home of George Bernard Shaw between 1906 and 1950. For the Constructors Murray is venturing out of the City to lead an engaging walk around Clubland of the West End. Murray is an accomplished after dinner speaker and has spoken at many of the Clubs will take us on interesting stroll around the Clubs of Pall Mall.
