The Speaker's House Tour Wednesday 12th August 2025

Order! Order! See where the Speaker of the House of Commons lives and conducts their official business outside of the Chamber.

This guided tour offers you the unique opportunity see inside the incredible rooms and get up close to some of the magnificent artworks, including portraits of Speakers through the years.

Your guide will share some lesser-known historical facts about the role of the Speaker - a role that has existed since 1377. You'll also see some surprising objects along they way and learn their origins and relationship to Parliament.

Tour starts at 4.15pm but please meet at Cromwell Green Entrance at 3.45pm LATEST to receive your ticket and clear security.

The tour last approx. 75mins and we will then enjoy a drink and a bite to eat at The Westminster Arms, Storey Gate, Westminster, SW1P 3AT at your own cost.
