

Royal Charter Award for Excellence in Construction

Rules of the Award

1. These rules are for guidance purposes only and are not prescriptive. They may be varied by the Master of the Worshipful Company of Constructors at his or her absolute discretion. They shall be read in conjunction with the rest of the documentation produced by the Worshipful Company of Constructors in relation to this Award.
2. Submissions for the Award may only be made by a member of the Worshipful Company of Constructors.
3. The closing date for submissions for the first Award is 3rd June 2011. The Clerk will circulate the closure dates for subsequent Awards at an appropriate time. Submissions shall be made electronically in a form acceptable to the Clerk of the Worshipful Company of Constructors.
4. The submission shall consist of an executive summary [up to 200 words], and up to three A4 pages of supporting documentation. The submission shall include at least one high resolution photograph that is not embedded in the main documentation, and is representative of the submission.
5. Part or all of the submission may be published, or otherwise distributed, by the Worshipful Company of Constructors unless specifically requested otherwise. The member making the submission confirms by signing the application that they have sought and obtained all necessary permissions in relation to the use of the documentation by the Worshipful Company of Constructors.
6. Where required or appropriate, the member making the submission shall inform all parties outside of the Worshipful Company of Constructors that may have an interest that the submission has been made.
